Fight! fight! fight!

Though a thousand fathers die,
Fight! fight! fight! Fight | fight | fight | Though thousands of children ety: Fight | fight | fight | Whitst mothers and wives lament; And fight | fight | fight | Whitst millions of money are spent.

Whits millions of money are spent.
Fight 16th 1 field 1
Should the cause be foul rafair.
Though all that gained is an empty name,
And a tax too great to bear;
An empty name and a pality fame,
And thousand a plate fame,
And thousand a plate dead;
White error givinous victory
Most raise the price of bread.

War! war! war!

Fire, and famine, and sword;

Fire, and famine, and desorte towns,

And hoo-sands scattered abroad,

With accer a home, with never a shed;

Whit kingdons perish and fall

And handreds of thousands are lying dead,

And sli—for anthing at all.

The Riddle.—The Bishop of Salisbury, Eagland as given to the world the following riddle, and of the areward of £50 for its solution:—

That my first and my last are me seat on me an. Deacourt or Jerusa—It is always to belong in mind in Jerusa—It is always to be long in mind in Jerusa—It is always to be long in mind in Jerusa—It is always to the state of the majority. The verilet is required, Jesheshond, or projury. The verilet is majority and sometimes the verified to the majority and sometimes the verified to the scale of the state of t

STOLEN GOODS—A negro in Jamsies was tried for theft, and ordered to be flogged. He begged to be leard, which being granted, he asked, "If whit man buy stolen goods, why he be noflogged too! "Well," said the Judee," so he would,"—"Dre dead," replied Manog, "is ny massa,—he buy take goods; he knew me tolen, and yet he buy me."

One piece of intelligence, which we have seen it wo or have Irish papers, is very lameniable; we mean the deaths of clergy men's wives, feer a sirke while ministering to the eick among their butself flocks. Such women realize the character while DT. Johnson described as the noblest to the world-that of "4" the Christian gentlewoman."

Ano.—A negro from the Coast of Guines was taken to Holland, and thence to Germany. He became a Doctor of the University of Councillor of the King of Prassis, and was the shot for of some Dissertations on the Eights of the Blacks. He returned to, and died is, his natire
